

Pinhoe Viking Flower Festival

Pinhoe Parish Church

Thursday 12 - Sunday 15 July

11.00am - 7.00pm
(Sunday 2.00pm - 5.00pm)

Displays depicting life in Saxon times, the Viking invasion and the sacking of Pinhoe.

Refreshments Sales Tent

BONFIRE & BARBECUE

Friday 13 July at 7.30pm
In field by Church Car Park

From M5 take exit 30, follow AA signs to Pinhoe Viking Festival

The Pinhoe and Broadclyst Team Ministry

St Michael and All Angels Church,
Pinhoe, Exeter.

PINHOE VIKING FESTIVAL

JULY 14 - 15 2001

To mark the 1000 Anniversary of
'The Battle of Pinhoe 1001'

Church Hill, Pinhoe, Exeter.
(Follow AA signs)

Supported by Exeter City Council

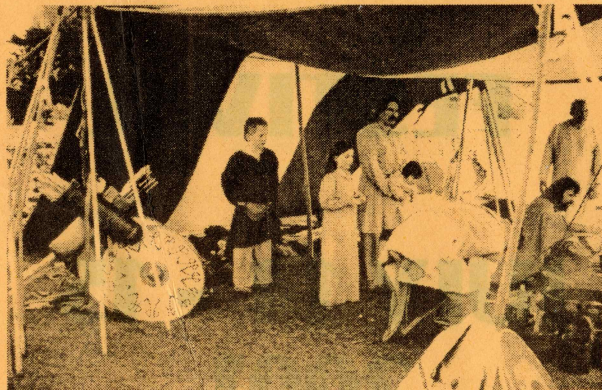

Displays

- by 'The Vikings' (the premier society in the UK presenting re-enactments of the Viking Age)

Saxon Village

- highlighting life in the year 1001.

Arena Displays

- Archery

Drama

Battle Training

Battle Re-enactment

- more than 100 warriors recreating 'The Battle of Pinhoe'

Daily programme for the Arena Displays

- 11.00am Viking children training visiting children invited to join in
- 12 noon Rothgard's story: display by warriors depicting Viking history
- 12.30pm Archery display
- 1.00pm Skirmish
- 2.30pm Drama
- 3.30pm Main battle (100 warriors)

It was 1001 when the Danes sailed up the River Exe, unsuccessfully attacked Exeter and so proceeded to the villages nearby, with Pinhoe and Broadclyst both being burned. A battle was fought on Beacon Hill above the church.

Barbecue & Licensed Bar

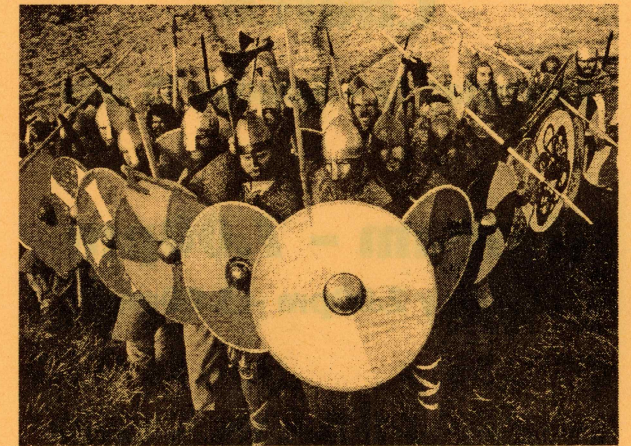

- hot food available all day

Car Parking

- free parking, follow AA signs from M 5 exit 30

Admission

-£3.00 Adults, £1.50 Children

More information

- for tickets and more details please phone 01392 468837 or 467541 or email heather.somerwill@ukgateway.net