NEWS ON THE WING III (FOGMOON 994)

To the Men and Women of the Raven GREETINGS !

No, I hadn't planned another newsletter so soon after the last one but a lot has happened since then so here goes.

As some of you know I attended the Jarls meeting last weekend. We spent a great deal of time discussing, amending and ratifying the society constitution. The final document will be distributed to group leaders at the next Jarls meeting in February. I will then have a copy for you to view if you wish (at 100+ A4 pages it isn't practicable to give each member a copy). A summary of the other items discussed is included for your information.

Back to more important matters, it was really excellent to see so many of you at Headley recently. Training is again scheduled for this coming Sunday, 20th November in Headley. I have included a map with our meeting place marked. We should all meet there at 2pm because we may have to go on to another venue. Training is also planned for 11th December and 8th January. Weather permitting we will use at least one of these sessions to give our archers some 'live' target practice. This works both ways in that archers learn to shoot at people and the warriors get used to the idea of being shot at. Finally, don't forget that although we talk about training sessions everyone is welcome to attend to watch, make tea or just have a chat.

I have started to distribute a list of authentic names to all members. Take a little time to choose one since they are quite important and should be used whenever you are in character.

The great Mid-Winter festival approaches. It has been proposed we hold a social get-together on Sunday 11th December at Dakota's American Bistro in Fleet. We plan to book a table for a 1.30pm lunch for as many of you as wish to attend. I will have copies of their standard menu for you to see at training on Sunday and because of the short notice we need to know numbers by the following Sunday 27th. This is a non-costume gathering and children, girlfriends, wives etc. are welcome.

I will have the video and leaflets mentioned in the attached Jarls meeting summary with me this Sunday. We may be able to view the video during a break in training.
